Benedict Arnold - Master of the American Rebellion: Greatest and Most Important Person in the History of the World (Full Color) Ellis Warren Drewery
History Revealed: America and England owe Benedict Arnold the ultimate apology for their most tragic ordeal and greatest mistake in the history of the world! BENEDICT ARNOLD and JOSEPH WARREN were the unintentional creators of the United States of America. If either man had decided not to be involved in the rebellion against England, there would not have been a Continental Congress, rebel army, or 'United States', and, just like most colonists, neither man thought of being independent of England. Seven months after JOSEPH WARREN created and directed the Continental Congress in Philadelphia, BENEDICT ARNOLD reached JOSEPH WARREN'S headquarters at Harvard College in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Delegates to only the second meeting of the so-called Continental Congress had not reached Philadelphia when JOSEPH WARREN promoted BENEDICT ARNOLD and directed him with a secret mission and plan for a solution to the rebellion. Reporting only to JOSEPH WARREN, BENEDICT ARNOLD could have subdued every important fort in North America, including Canada, and then reconciled with England. Without the interference of the Continental Congress, the American rebellion would have and should have ended in 1775. No one would have or could have done what BENEDICT ARNOLD did for his love of America, which unfortunately led to a fluke ending of the conflict, unintentional fracture of England's empire, and loss of the nearest possible utopia this world has ever known. I have thoroughly researched and examined the enshrined mythical, fabricated, glorified history of the 'American Revolution,' written and spun by the Continental Congress "The Founding Fathers." BENEDICT ARNOLD would have and should have been successful, because his actions have shaped our world and life, which today would be a world of peace, freedom, and love, and so we all owe him the ultimate apology. Take time to discover the truth about this incredible most special person who was doing the right thing. Incredibly Awesome is the only way to truly describe and honor BENEDICT ARNOLD!
