Stinking Creek: The Portrait of a Small Mountain Community in Appalachia

Stinking Creek: The Portrait of a Small Mountain Community in Appalachia
This is a moving intimate look at the Kentucky mountain people of Stinking Creek by a man who got to know them by living with them and listening to them. Fetterman lets them speak for themselves, both in words and in the magnificent photographs he took of almost every one of the books speakers. Stinking Creek is not simply a sociological study full of facts and figures: it is also up look into the soul of a small, almost totally cut off world.
