Race Relations in the USA 1863-1980 (Access to History) Vivienne Saunders
Revised to reflect the needs of current exam specifications, this new edition gives a detailed account of the history of Black, Hispanic, Native, and Asian Americans from the American Civil War onwards and illustrates the changing nature of the political, social, and economic struggles throughout this period. Particular attention is paid to the role of individuals such as Booker T. Washington, Harry Truman, and Martin Luther King, as well as examining the roles of government and other organizations in influencing the changes, progress, and regressions which characterize this history of race relations. Throughout the book key dates, terms, and issues are highlighted, and historical interpretations of key debates are outlined. Summary diagrams are included to consolidate knowledge and understanding of the period, and exam style questions and tips for each examination board provide the opportunity to develop exam skills.
