Gunpowder, TREason and Plot, or How we dug up the Ancestors (Tim Eason Chronicles Book 1)
Allan Frost
When unconfirmed bachelor Tim Eason visits Priorton in pursuit of a new lead on England's infamous Gunpowder Plot, he didn't anticipate just how close his relationship with pub landlady Sarah Brewer would become, although an ancient juke box with a mind of its own in the corner of the bar seems to have some idea.

Nor did he realise his research would attract the attention of bungling conspirators Frank Fiddlit (a dubious solicitor), Tom Bleak (of Bleak Homes Limited) and Neville Strubble (hapless Council Planning Officer).

Tim digs up enough information to attend a Court hearing to determine ownership of Priorton Hall. However, Judge Sir Cedric Foot-Wart seems strangely preoccupied. Until an unexpected witness appears …

This explosive novel is set in an English town ignored by progress and Time itself. A succession of farcical scenes will have you wondering what on earth will happen next!
