Deadly Game Matt Johnson
Robert Finlay is a cop. A cop with a history.

Returning to work as a policemen was never going to be easy when the last few weeks had seen friends and family targeted by a gang of terrorists.

In 'Deadly Game', Finlay finds himself ostracised by the majority of his former colleagues and unable to pursue the quiet life that he so desperately craves.

He is recruited to join a newly formed team investigating the sex-slave trade.

Soon, he is drawn into a world where life is cheap and ruthless criminals have exploited the opportunity to make vast amounts of cash.

Then the new team gets a break. A victim willing to testify against her abductors. The chance to take on the traffickers has arrived.

But the gangsters have plans of their own. Plans that will stop at nothing as they eliminate those that oppose them.

And in the background, MI5 officer Toni Fellowes is determined to uncover the full story behind the attacks on Finlay’s family and former Army colleagues.

It is a story that threatens to expose embarrassing links between terrorists and the Security Services.

Spring 2012 saw the launch of a self-published thriller called 'Wicked Game' that was described by Peter James as terse, tense and vivid writing.

Peter describes Matt Johnson as a brilliant new name in the world of thrillers.

'Wicked Game' received over two hundred and fifty 5* and 4* reviews.

'Deadly Game' is the sequel to Matt Johnson's debut novel.

"Writing so authentic it made my skin crawl... and I've been there." RL (Former Det-Sgt Metropolitan Police Human Trafficking Squad)
