Holiday Tales Anthology - 2014 is a group of short stories, poems, and pictures celebrating the important days of our lives - Holidays. The definition for Holiday is used as times that are of great significance to people's lives as well as those official Government-declared holidays. Others wrote about Springtime including an Easter fantasy story, and Arbor Day, as well as Independence Day. The stories did not have to be serious – or true, although some are. They could be funny or fantasy. And the authors took us up on these relaxed guidelines, resulting in an eclectic group of holiday stories unlike most you find during the Holiday Season – which could be anytime of the year. Relax and enjoy. The Editors
