And the Word Became Flesh: A 90-Day Chronological Journey Through the New Testament Kathy Gossen
“And the word became flesh, and dwelt among us” (John 1:14). God’s Word is to be lived out in human flesh so others can see it—first in Jesus and now in us. How do we learn to show the living Word to others? By studying it, meditating on it, memorizing it, and praying it. This biblical journey will allow you to not only read through the New Testament chronologically in 90 days, but be transformed by the Word as you take time for reflection, prayer, and scripture memory based on what you are reading. Be prepared to have the Word come alive within you like never before. This is a study guide you are bound to use time and again.
