Max Beerbohm: A Kind of Life

Professor N. John Hall, N. John Hall

Max Beerbohm: A Kind of Life Professor N. John Hall, N. John Hall
Max Beerbohm was widely celebrated as the wittiest mind of his age. And it was a very long age indeed: he became famous in the mid-1890s and remained so until his death in 1956. His wit manifested itself in both prose and caricature, and his writings and drawings are keenly interesting. Max's life, however, was relatively uneventful, of interest, he said, only to himself. This biography of Max aims to enliven his story by quoting him whenever possible.
