Leap Year: A 21-Day Springboard to the Year You've Been Waiting For
Have you recently taken time to study the last 5-7 years of your life? For many of us, every year is beginning to look the same. At the beginning of the year, we make resolutions and commitments. Two-three months later, a predictable relapse or setback takes place then our old friend, discouragement, moves in and we comfortably settle back into our old ways. Has this become the formula for your life?
It does not matter whether you are young or seasoned in this life; leap years are still in front of you. I believe that this year, life will not move for you at a predictable, slow, or ordinary pace. The trajectory of your entire life is going to permanently change this year. This is the year you will finally break through. This is the year your faithfulness will be rewarded. This is the year habits, strongholds, and sinful altars will be cast down. This is the year of restoration. This is the year dreams will be released from the prison of your mind. This is the year that plans will leap off of paper and crystallize in reality. This is the year that potential will materialize. This is the year your heart will finally heal. This is the year that weeping will cease and joy will return. Get Ready! This is your leap year!
