COURTESY OF TWOBEARS BOOKS Planning your career in today's highly competitive business world is a challenging task requiring specialized information usually available only to those already in the field. CHOOSING A CAREER IN BUSINESS is the first resource book to give you the tools to find the lucrative, rewarding career you want. Learn how to honestly and accurately assess your own skills and ambitions (the first step in career management) and to select the job that matches your personal profile. An in-depth exploration of each of the twelve major areas of business shows you: Specific career opportunities in each field; actual job duties and responsibilities; required education and skills; perks and travel duties; typical career paths and career ladders; how to evaluate firms in relation to your career objectives; what to expect in your first 5-10 years of employment; what it's really like, day-to-day, on the job. And a comprehensive analysis of what recruiters are looking for will help you get positive results in those all-important interviews. Whether you are a student, a graduate, or an experienced businessperson considering a career change, CHOOSING A CAREER IN BUSINESS has the inside information that will help you target and manage the business career that's right for you.
