Vincent Black Lightning 1952 Al Sciarrino
A hard hitting tale of a confused young soldier who experiences war and the loss of his family farm upon returning from Korea. Though falling in love with a perky redhead and the fastest and most beautiful motorcycle of its time, he cannot help turning to crime in order to recover the farm and settle a score. Based partly on the powerful 1991 song "1951 Vincent Black Lightning," by Richard Thompson, as covered by Del McCoury in 2002, readers will enjoy not only the gritty combat and motorcycle race scenes but also the expressions and tenderness between two young, star-crossed lovers.
