What Feels Right: Pistachio Head Stories Volume One P.H. Friendly
A handful of nuts break the species barrier, become curiously human, and proliferate into a Utopian community that believes civility, humility, and gratitude are survival skills. What Feels Right, takes a playful and philosophical look at social interactions: how to hoop dance to stay in relationship with the ones who haven't mastered live and let live; how to sweeten-up a Bone Head bully; how to grow where you're planted; and how love conquers all, except when it's all too human. The stories also reveal the Pistachio Head penchant for clichés, p words, p word idioms, and for common names that start with p.
