The Murders at the Wilson Farm

John E. Moser

The Murders at the Wilson Farm John E. Moser
On a sunny afternoon in October 1943 three bodies were found at the Wilson dairy farm, just outside the western Pennsylvania town of Mercer. To this day it's not entirely clear who committed the grisly murders. Was it Janice Graham, the young woman who worked in the kitchen? Or William Morrell, the farmhand with a troubled past and an infatuation for Janice? Or was it the farm's owner, Everett Wilson, who skipped town soon afterward?
