Raven Stone (GODLESS Book 1) A.K. Gallagher
Book I of the Godless Series, begins in Havenport, where sheltered from the outside world, ELIANNA, thought she was like any other seventeen year old girl, until her grandfather sends her on what seems a harmless journey to the Western Desert.
When her brother, MATHUSAL, charged to keep her safe (and medicated), slips up, Elianna discovers there is something much more sinister to her hot temper and her past, than just her hormones.
Relentlessly pursued by the Imperial Solider, LUTHANDO, whose ulterior motives are unclear, Elianna quickly finds herself hooked on his roguish charms, despite the dangers such an infatuation presents, and against brother's warnings.
Elianna's heated temper soon gets out of control, and its only when she reaches the Western Desert and the wisdom of the Wandering Tribe, does she come to unlock the secrets of the Raven Stone, and her place in the world.
Meanwhile, her grandfather BEODAW, who has kept Elianna's identity hidden from all, including her, finds his own troubles, when hounded by the zealot priest DRAVEN, who forces the old man to return to the hallowed ground of the Elder Seven Gods and Goddesses, and confront the misery of his questionable past.
Plagued by the intrigue of old men, and other worldly apparitions, Elianna must grow up and face head on the darkness that hides inside her. Charged to reunite the Guardians of the Elder Stones, Elianna must accept her inescapable destiny or the forces of chaos will consume the world.
