The Golden Thread: Mediumship in the Bible Sidney Schwartz, Rev. Carl R. Hewitt
If all of history were a tapestry of time, a Golden Thread would be woven throughout, symbolizing the working of Spirit. This Golden Thread is contrasted against a dark background of ignorance, that theologians perpetuated to keep the truth of the Spirit World hidden from humanity. The Golden Thread will examine history from a new perspective, through the eyes of a medium. The aim of this book is to explain the workings of Spirit, known today as parapsychology or psychic phenomena and to relate this phenomena with historical events, to demonstrate how mankind has been guided by Spirit since the beginning of time. The presentation of alternative theories is not intended to convert the reader's beliefs, but to provide rational evidence to support and enhance the reader's beliefs. Most of the major personalities of the Bible were mediums, and demonstrated at least one of the Gifts of the Spirit. The Golden Thread will explain how each of the Gifts of the Spirit functions and clarify which Biblical medium demonstrated that gift. The laws of psychic science have never changed, and what was true in Biblical times, is still true today. The text of the Bible has filtered through the minds of hundreds of translators, and as a result many translations have been infused with translators' biases and agendas not found in in the original texts. Despite the fact there are over 500 translations of the Bible, much psychic meaning and information is embedded in the original Hebrew of the Old Testament, which never gets transmitted into English translations.
