Do you remember your sweet old College Days?

Those sweet moments that you spent with your friends on a picnic or the time upon graduating when you threw your cap high along with your pals.

I vividly remember the night before the first day of my college.It was 1 a.m. and I couldn't sleep. I was partly excited, a bit curious and a bit nervous. Too many questions were running around in my mind. 'Will I make a friend tomorrow? How would she be? How should I start a conversation with others? What should I say when a teacher asks me to introduce myself to her and the class?'

THE BOOK
This book is a divided into 3 parts

The first part of the book will take your hand and return you to the precious and cherished moments of your college life beginning from The First Day of your College to you graduating with your friends and classmates.

The second part gets into the experiences that you shared with your friends and teachers.

The third part helps you look back at those memories from a distance and how it feels now ,after so many years.
