If I had known Stacy was going to have her loser boyfriend over I never would have invited Kevin to come watch the game with me. They had given up any pretense of being quiet and it was pretty damn obvious what was going on behind the paper-thin walls of her bedroom. I closed my eyes and wished they would just finish up already.

If I had known Pete, the loser boyfriend, and Stacy were going to put on a show for the whole damn floor, I would have suggested Kevin and I head out to O'Malley's to watch the Bruins game. It was Friday night and they were usually out at some stupid party, stumbling home just before dawn. This was definitely not the way to impress my new, hot neighbor.

I rushed home from work to tidy up the last of the mess Stacy had left lying around the apartment after she got up. She worked most nights and seemed to think that entitled her to leave her crap all over the apartment during the day. I sure as hell didn't want Kevin walking in, seeing Stacy's bras strewn around the apartment and get entirely the wrong idea about me.
