Duck and Cover Verily Harden
Hank has prepared for the end of the world. He's got supplies, a secure place to go and a plan to get him there. He's pretty well set when the bombs start falling.

When he's ready to shelter in place in a bunker he set up at his job, he's confronted with a scared woman with no place to go. Hank takes her in, and soon the attraction to her is almost more than he can take.

Josie is grateful Hank let her into his shelter, and even more grateful that he doesn't expect anything in return. The thing is, she very much wants to show him her appreciation in a way he won't soon forget.
