Spent - Part Three (Bad Boy Fighter Book 3) Elise Holland

Luke Richards is swinging hard and landing punches with a ferocity Tasha has never seen before. His career as professional MMA fighter is hurtling skyward, but is this intense new energy being driven from a darker place and a desire for revenge?

Tasha Hendricks is in recovery. After being discharged from hospital, she discovers that a whole new phase of healing has only just begun. With panic attacks and an unwelcome string of phone calls haunting her life, she'll need to take down some emotional walls or risk chasing away the only other person capable of bring her back.

To make matters worse, the police investigation Tasha so desperately needs to help her find closure is withdrawing resources. And when a phone call in the dead of the night threatens to thrust Luke and her right back in to the lives of the very people she is desperately trying to put behind her, hard truths can no longer be ignored.

Tough times call for a tender touch, and where there is darkness, passion and intense love can be a guiding light.

Fear pushes against love, and unstoppable forces come together leading into an explosive and climactic ending in this nail biting conclusion to the Spent trilogy.
