Considering the decreasing value of the US dollar, it’s no wonder that more and more Americans are choosing to retire abroad. This is not a new phenomenon though, mind you. Americans have been retiring overseas to stretch their money for decades. The reason why? Well, it makes economic sense. Many have scrimped and saved for decades in the hopes of retiring on some beach front paradise, making up for all those years of living frugally. But with the lingering effects of the Global Economic Crisis, however, leaving America is no longer a choice for many senior citizens. It’s become a necessity. Whether you are of retirement age, or find yourself creeping closer to it with a shrinking pocket, do not despair. But before you pack your bags, understand that this is not a vacation we’re talking about here. It’s retirement. This ebook will therefore help you discover the best countries where the standard of living is good to fantastic, and yet where the US dollar goes far. It will also explain what you need to consider before you start packing your bags, and what to expect when you get there. Let’s get started!
