Brief History of the Jungian 16 Types Assessment

There are other very well-known type tests out there that used the research of Katharine Cook Briggs and her daughter Isabel Briggs Myers to achieve great results. Those assessments devised their theories from Carl Jung's work in his book Psychological Types (1921). A fine combination of great research, testing, and theorizing to create great tools.

Looking for More Tools?

As mentioned inside the book, the resources and websites referenced inside lead to more resources to help your grow and understand your personality type better. There is even an online version of the test available for those that want to double check their hand-scored answers done with this book.

The options are yours - ready to understand your personality and grow soon?
