Love Ain't Never Been Easy R. Michelle
Allure never expected her life to change for the worse, but she should've known better. Nothing in her life has ever been easy. Meeting the love of her life, Trey'Von McDaniel, in high school gave her a slither of hope in love.
Trey loves Allure with all of his heart, but what happens when those around them don't want them happy? Filling his head with lies and false truths causes Trey to make the worse decision of his life, and it nearly costs him the love of his life. Trey, consumed with guilt, takes it out on Allure, pushing her away.
Allure, feeling like a prisoner in her relationship, decides that she can no longer take the abuse. She plans her escape but not before a skeleton in Trey's closet reveals itself, making her decision to move on easier. She moves to Greensboro, North Carolina, to start her new life, when she has the pleasure of meeting Infamous Cortez.
Infamous has never been the one to be with one woman, but what happens when an almost fatal night leads him to Allure McKenzie? She is the first face he sees in the hospital and the first when he wakes up. Infamous can't seem to shake the attraction that he has for her.
Allure and Infamous can't fight the attraction that they have for each, but they have a common enemy amongst them. Allure is finding out that Trey hid more than she bargained for while handling the appearance of a surprise guest in her and Infamous' lives. While Infamous is trying to find a way to get to the person who ordered the hit on him, Allure is dealing with Trey's skeletons falling out of the closet. Can Infamous and Allure make this work, or will the drama they have tear them apart?
