Standing Between Earth and Heaven (Jura City) (Volume 2) Douglas Milewski
In the second book of the Jura City trilogy, the story picks up where "Weeds Among Stone" ended. When an old Kalt asks Maran to be a “digger,” he upends Maran’s idea of her place in this world. Altyn Tag called Maran’s ability to visit gods “living in a new normal.” What did that mean? What duties did that demand? What responsibilities did that bring? Even as Maran asks these questions of herself, a drug called Red Snake appears on the streets of Irontown, and Altyn fears that a Red Sybil may be in town. When rumors of another Astrean reaches Maran’s ears, she learns that Altyn has a hidden past connected with Red Snake, and Red Snake connects to the Red Lady, the Mistress of Secrets. The Jura City trilogy concludes with "A Touch of Genius."
