Memorable Quotations: F. Scott Fitzgerald
F. Scott Fitzgerald was one of the great American authors of the 20th Century. The literary spokesman of the “jazz age,” he wrote about people whose lives resembled his own. He and his wife, Zelda, lived a celebrated life, sparkling and self-indulgent, in New York City and the French Riviera, but his later years were beset by financial worries and his wife's insanity. Fitzgerald's novels include This Side of Paradise, The Beautiful and Damned, The Great Gatsby (his masterpiece about the corruption of the American dream), Tender Is the Night, and The Last Tycoon (an unfinished work reflecting his last years in Hollywood). He also published four short-story collections.
