Middle Level ISEE Practice Exam - Test Two Bright Kids NYC
The Independent School Entrance Examination (ISEE®) is a common standardized aptitude test used to gain admission into top private, military, and boarding schools in the United States. The Bright Kids NYC Middle Level ISEE® Practice Exam Test Two (for 7th and 8th grade entry) contains all of the relevant information a student needs to know about the ISEE®. Since students are only allowed to take the ISEE® once every six months per admission cycle, they need to score well on their first attempt taking the exam. The Middle Level ISEE® Practice Exam Test Two includes one full exam; answer keys that label the types of questions found on each section of the practice exam; scoring approximation tables that help students gauge how they might do on the actual ISEE®; and in-depth answer explanations that review concepts and offer practical strategies that students will need to know for their upcoming exam. Each section of the Middle Level ISEE® Practice Exam Test Two has been carefully written and designed to be the most accurate representation of the exam currently available on the market. Special attention has been paid to language, visual design, progression of difficulty, range of concepts, and the manner of logic that is employed on the actual exam.
