Honor Thy Father P. K. Perkins
Solo thought he couldn't be anymore blessed coming from a foster home into a stable house with gifted hands. He grew to be a NFL hopeful and dubbed the chosen one by his church going parents who prided themselves on their following of the good book. Or at least that's how it seemed. Could your faith keep you sane or your reality drive you crazy? Solomon soon finds out that what he thought was his perfect world and holy practice taught by his parents was only a hyper lane for destruction. From blood sacrifices and wild parties that led to a promiscuous descent Solomon believes his good doings taught by his Parents may not be as sent from heaven as he was taught but instead instructions from hell..
